Dude I don't think you realize that I'm not saying the problem is racism. And seriously man what the hell is with you losing your shit over me saying stop painting all cops as bad guys, and I highly doubt cops roll around neighborhoods killing people and planting evidence, I came from one of those shitty black neighborhoods and yeah I'm black and think they're a bunch of ignorant fucks that pick fights all the time. They don't do anything to fix their own fucking problems, I figured you were one of the assholes cop bashing and thinking they're all bad people. They're not, on every occasion before I joined the Army that I've run into cops I've never seen them just haphazardly want to kill me over some bullshit even in a shitty place, the difference these days is that the media tries to paint them over as authoritarian abusive dudes when half of them used to be soldiers just like any of us, really they are about the same as we are and we all know a few fucktards in the Army that'll fuck up and do stupid shit. Same goes for cops

...better than the citizens it "WORKS FOR"....why???? inquiring minds need to know WHY does your "GANG" trump my club? The Infidel your Imam warned you about 848936448475064...

Boycott! All Latinos should avoid staying at any of the Hotels that this MORON owns. I'm not Mexican But I'm in great disgust at what this MORON has said. UM excuse me MR. MORON NOT one Latino has come here to bring down the world trade center, Not one Latino has put a bomb in a marathon race, Not one Latino has gone into a Church and killed 9 people, NOT one Latino has gone into a school and killed Children, Not one Latino has gone into a theater and killed movie goers. YOU are by FAR A MORON!! NOT to mention UGLY & the only reason you have your wife is for your MONEY! Take that away & she will leave your pathetic ass in a heartbeat.

...is a character named Donald Trump, who made very violent declarations with great hatred of Mexicans and Latin Americans and called us rapists, criminals, drug traffickers. This is all...

Read. Think. Comment. Not the other way around. While I dont like Trump I still think that you misunderstood the - actually quiet obvious - message of his twitter post. He first stated that president Obama has done a bad job as president without a connection to his skin color. Then he concludes that because of that poor performance there wont be a black president for generations. There is a difference between black -> poor performance and poor performance -> no black president for generations. Since the voter decides who will become president (yeah I know, I had to laugh too ;)) the only thing that Trump says is that because of the poor performance of Obama and the inability of the average voter (not Trumps) to separate Obamas skin color from his performance there will be sadly (thats Trumps own oppinion) no black president for generations. As I said: I dont like the guy and there is a lot of racism in this world that should be dealt with. But this is not one of them. All the likers of that post should take a minute to reflect.
